

Dolly Parton's IMAGINATION LIBRARY

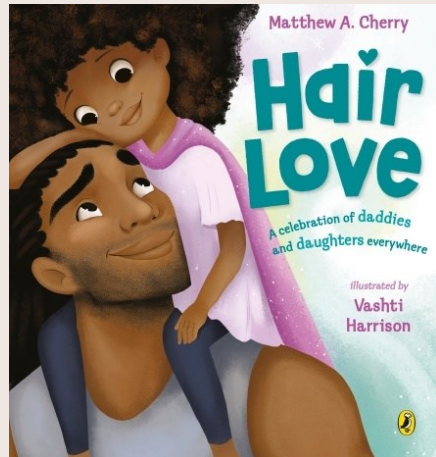

Book Tip Sheet

Hair Love

Matthew Cherry and Vashti Harrison

This wonderful story is about embracing what make us feel special. Zuri loves her hair and how it makes her feel.

Join Zuri and her dad in creating the perfect look for an extra-special day!

BEFORE READING...

- ▶ Show your child the cover and ask them what they think the book will be about.
- ▶ Ask them about the similarities and differences with their hair and Zuri's hair (e.g. colour, length, texture).

WHILE READING...

- ▶ Read the story out loud and talk about the different emotions.
- ▶ While reading, ask your child if they can relate to Zuri. Do they feel a certain way in their favourite t-shirt or with a certain hairstyle? What makes them feel like themselves?

AFTER READING...

- ▶ Ask your child what features they like about themselves and share yours with them.
- ▶ Play dress up and style their hair together for a pretend special day.
- ▶ Talk about activities you do together that sometimes need trial and error.

Email read@unitedway.com.au for address changes or any questions!