

The Dinos on the Bus

Peter Millett

Sing and dance along with the Dinos on the bus for a colourful, fun, musical adventure!

This book uses the familiar tune of “the wheels on the bus” to frame this fun story about dinosaurs going on a bus ride.

BEFORE READING...

- ▶ Point to the bus on the front cover. Ask your child if they know a song about ‘the wheels on the bus’? Hum or sing this song to help them remember the tune.
- ▶ On the first page, count to see how many dinosaurs are at the bus stop. Encourage your child to help you count. Ask your child if they think there will be more dinosaurs getting on the bus?

WHILE READING...

- ▶ On each page the words repeat, they change shape and position on the page. Follow with your finger and change your voice to reflect the text as you read along.
- ▶ Encourage your child to join in the song, create actions for each page to make the story interactive for your child.

AFTER READING...

- ▶ Flip back through the story and see if your child can remember the actions and words for each page.
- ▶ Look again at the faces of the dinosaurs, ask your child what they might be feeling and why.
- ▶ Catch a bus somewhere with your child!
